This course meets the Lead Homicide Investigator mandated training requirement

Course Info: This 4-hour training seminar is designed for the seasoned investigators. It will cover testimony techniques as well as what to do and what not to do when testifying in court. It will be based on real-life experiences from a prosecutor that has handled thousands of cases over 4 decades.

Instructor: Jon Barnard has been the State's Attorney for Adams County Illinois since 2004. He has been an adjunct professor for Northwestern University School of Law & William Woods University. He has been a faculty member of Emory University School of Law, Trial Techniques Program from 1996-2002. Jon has published articles for the American Journal of Trial Advocacy and the Illinois Institute of Continuing Legal Education. Jon has been teaching courtroom procedures since 1985 as well as a practicing attorney since 1975. Jon is an expert in the field of criminal prosecution and trials. He brings to us these vast experiences and shares methods that police officers can use to make the most of their courtroom experience.

Non-Member Tuition: The non-member tuition for this class is $40.00.

To Register: Email registration to register@letac.org. You may also fill out and submit our online registration form through the website at www.letac.org or call 217-726-7014 to register by phone (be sure to include all pertinent information). MTU #10 local member department officers will be given registration preference until seven days prior to the date of class. After that date, registrations will be taken on a first-come, first-served basis, regardless of MTU status. We cannot accept registrations from individual officers. All registrations must go through your Chief, Sheriff, or department training office, even if you are attending class on your own time.

Cancellation: If a class must be canceled for any reason, every effort will be made to do so at least 2 weeks before the class is scheduled to begin. However, there are circumstances where last minute cancellation is out of our control. All officers who have been registered for training will be contacted at the email address given at registration, so please be sure to provide an email address which is checked often.
