Islamic State/ISIL: Global Threats and Law Enforcement Responses

April 27, 2018

8:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

LETAC Training Center

840 S. Spring, Suite B
Springfield, IL

Meets the following mandated training requirements: Cultural Competency, Human Rights & Procedural Justice

Instructor: Dean C. Alexander is Director of the Homeland Security Research Program and Professor of Homeland Security at the School of Law Enforcement and Justice Administration at Western Illinois University. Prof. Alexander's teaching, research, and speaking activities encompass terrorism, security, and legal issues. He has lectured in ten countries, including to law enforcement and military officials at North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO), U.S. State Department, and National Intelligence University events. Also, he has trained for the Illinois Statewide Terrorism and Intelligence Center, Oregon Fusion Center, Northern California Regional Intelligence Center, Michigan State Police, Milwaukee Police Department, Yuma Police Department, McAllen Police Department, and the Iowa Homeland Security and Emergency Management Department personnel, among others law enforcement entities and professionals.

Course Description: The course will cover the history of global jihad and the different ideologies involved and how they have evolved into today's violent world. It will help officers understand the violent jihad threat with a specific introduction to ISIL/Islamic State. The course will cover U.S. based operatives and how law enforcement must respond in the form of policy and procedure as well as calls for service to such violent individuals.

Non-Member Tuition: NONE. Non-Member tuition shall apply to State/Federal agencies and Local Law Enforcement agencies which are not a member of any MTU. Tuition will be invoiced to departments upon course completion. If a pre-registered student from a Non-Member agency fails to attend training, and the agency fails to provide advance notice within 7 days of the start date of that class, the agency will be invoiced the entire amount of the student's tuition.

To Register: Email registration to register@letac.org. You may also fill out and submit our online registration form through the website at www.letac.org or call 217-726-7014 to register by phone (be sure to include all pertinent information).

MTU #10 local member department officers will be given registration preference until seven days prior to the date of class. After that date, registrations will be taken on a first-come, first-served basis, regardless of MTU status. We cannot accept registrations from individual officers. All registrations must go through your Chief, Sheriff, or department training office, even if you are attending class on your own time.

Cancellation: If a class must be canceled for any reason, every effort will be made to do so at least 2 weeks before the class is scheduled to begin. However, there are circumstances where last minute cancellation is out of our control. All officers who have been registered for training will be contacted at the email address given at registration, so please be sure to provide an email address which is checked often.
