He has been a guest instructor at the Connecticut, Rhode Island, Indiana, Massachusetts, Idaho, and Louisiana State Police Academies and Northwestern University's prestigious Traffic Institute. ABOUT THE CLASS: This training class is a train-the-trainer version of the local police tavern inspection and age compliance enforcement training class. It is intended for police in-service trainers who have been assigned to train departmental police officers tasked with liquor law enforcement and age compliance enforcement for tobacco and liquor sales. This is an advanced level class that goes beyond the uniformed patrol officer "bar check walk-through" and focuses on specific liquor license inspection regulations and procedures. The one-day program will focus on the inspection of by-the-drink liquor establishments (taverns) for compliance with state and local regulations governing licensing, signage, restricted sales, advertising, sanitation, and prohibited practices. Special license inspections for seasonal festivals and one-time/special liquor events will also be discussed. Standardized documentation of violations that comply with state commission standards will accompany a legal review. The 2015 revised Illinois Happy Hour Law
