Meets the criteria for the following mandated training: Cultural Competency, Human Rights, & Procedural Justice

INSTRUCTOR: Dean C. Alexander is Director of the Homeland Security Research Program and Professor of Homeland Security at the School of Law Enforcement and Justice Administration at Western Illinois University. Prof. Alexander's teaching, research, and speaking activities encompass terrorism, security, and legal issues. He has lectured in ten countries, including to law enforcement and military officials at North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO), U.S. State Department, and National Intelligence University events. Also, he has trained for the Illinois Statewide Terrorism and Intelligence Center, Oregon Fusion Center, Northern California Regional Intelligence Center, Michigan State Police, Milwaukee Police Department, Yuma Police Department, McAllen Police Department, and the Iowa Homeland Security and Emergency Management Department personnel, among others law enforcement entities and professionals.

ABOUT THE CLASS: This in-service training course addresses the complex and evolving extremist/terrorist challenges in the United States and the ways in which law enforcement, in conjunction with the public, can prevent and respond to combat this menace. In fact, the role of the public in this regard is increasingly relevant, whether in countering violent extremism, detecting prospective foreign fighters, preventing incipient attacks, and responding to incidents as they occur.

The class will cover:

- * Overview of extremists/terrorist threats in the U.S.;
- * The role of government in preventing and responding to terrorist activities;
- * Efforts from the public in preventing terrorists incidents;
- * Ways to encourage the public to provide tips and/or information regarding terrorism.

Non-Member Tuition: There will be no non-member tuition as this class is covered by a Homeland Security grant.

To Register: Email registration to register@letac.org. You may also fill out and submit our online registration form through the website at www.letac.org or call 217-726-7014 to register by phone (be sure to include all pertinent information). MTU #10 local member department officers will be given registration preference until seven days prior to the date of class. After that date, registrations will be taken on a first-come, first-served basis, regardless of MTU status.

We cannot accept registrations from individual officers. All registrations must go through your Chief, Sheriff, or department training office, even if you are attending class on your own time.

Cancellation: If a class must be canceled for any reason, every effort will be made to do so at least 2 weeks before the class is scheduled to begin. However, there are circumstances where last minute cancellation is out of our control. All officers who have been registered for training will be contacted at the email address given at registration, so please be sure to provide an email address which is checked often. Cancellations will also be posted to our mailing list and our Facebook and Twitter accounts.
