Mirikitani strives to “fit” her training, consulting, & coaching to the unique needs of each organization’s employees through pre-interviews to identify organizational mission, policies, methods, & obstacles. She has ridden thousands of hours with law enforcement officers. Jan is considered a trusted friend of Law Enforcement by many.

Course Description: Based on the New York Times best seller, Daniel Goleman addresses the resounding need for leaders to embody Emotional Intelligence (EQ). This class defines myths that confuse power with leadership, lists primal leadership communication skills, defines EQ vocabulary applied to daily personnel communication & necessary primordial skills of leaders. It clarifies the four EQ cores that can build and sustain needed officer morale. Never before has the need been greater than to lead towards sustainable morale from the inside-out. Honed and practiced EQ skills lead to more probable civil and ethical community investments.

Audience: This course is designed for police supervisors of all ranks.

Non-Member Tuition: Non-member tuition for this class is $80.00.

To Register: Email registration to register@letac.org. You may also fill out and submit our online registration form through the website at www.letac.org or call 217-726-7014 to register by phone (be sure to include all pertinent information). MTU #10 local member department officers will be given registration preference until seven days prior to the date of class. After that date, registrations will be taken on a first-come, first-served basis, regardless of MTU status. We cannot accept registrations from individual officers. All registrations must go through your Chief, Sheriff, or department training office, even if you are attending class on your own time.

Cancellation: If a class must be canceled for any reason, every effort will be made to do so at least 2 weeks before the class is scheduled to begin. However, there are circumstances where last minute cancellation is out of our control. All officers who have been registered for training will be contacted at the email address given at registration, so please be sure to provide an email address which is checked often.
