

CPSJ

CENTER FOR PUBLIC SAFETY AND JUSTICE
INSTITUTE OF GOVERNMENT AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS
UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

Counter-Terrorism Training for the Line Officer: Focusing on Law Enforcement Intelligence

Presented by the Missouri-Regional Community Policing Institute
Via funding from Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA)
Hosted by the University of Illinois Center for Public Safety and Justice
&
The Law Enforcement Training Advisory Commission

October 19, 2010

Training Location: Law Enforcement Training Advisory Commission, Mobile Team Unit #10, 3171 Greenhead Drive, Suite B, Springfield, IL, 62711, Phone: 217-726-7014 or Email: letac@sbcglobal.net

Duration: 8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Program Description: This excellent 8-hour training course is a derivative of the State and Local Anti-Terrorism Training (SLATT) Program, developed with BJA funding, in partnership with the Federal Bureau of Investigation, by the Institute for Intergovernmental Research (IIR). The one-day training provides specialized training for law enforcement personnel in combating terrorism and extremist criminal activity. This training will ensure the delivery of the most up-to-date information, terrorism-related topics are constantly researched and reviewed and timely information is offered regarding pre-incident preparation, investigation, prevention and interdiction training. This training will focus on the prevention of terrorism in the United States by providing the tools necessary for state, local, and tribal law enforcement officers to understand, detect, deter and investigate acts of terrorism in the United States by both international and domestic, or homegrown, terrorists.

Training is free—Space is limited—Please register early with LETAC!

BJA

Bureau of Justice Assistance

