High Risk Officer Survival & Rescuer

April 13-14, 2011

8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Adamax Range, Lincoln, IL

(See Map)

Instructor: Ron Yanor, ADAMAX, Inc.

Course Description: This course, targeted toward patrol level officers, undercover/drug unit operators, and personnel working in rural environments, is based upon a worst-case scenario and the lessons learned from 9/11. During Hurricane Katrina, normal medical systems were interrupted and law enforcement was called upon to fill in the gaps - at times, under hostile conditions. The same events could occur in the wake of a terrorist assault, natural disaster, or an active shooter.

This is a very physically demanding course. Participants should expect to lift, carry, and drag fellow students.

Self treatment and casualty shooting drills will be taught, along with officer/civilian rescues, as a small team task. Students will also be introduced to advanced first aid skills, the Israeli bandage and Combat Applied Tourniquet. (Students will also receive one of each of these to take with them at the conclusion of class.)

Core topics include:

- * Self Casualty Shooting Drills
- *Self Treatment Drills
- *Live Fire Victim Rescues (1 & 2 man)
- *Victim Assessment & Treatment
- *Vehicle Rescues
- *Using Israeli Bandages

Student Equipment:

- *Duty pistol w/ duty belt, holster, ammo pouch, spare magazine, etc.
- *ammunition (250 rounds)
- *ballistic vest
- *eye & ear protection
- *old clothing (old uniform shirt)
- *squad car (preferred)

FOUR WAYS TO REGISTER: Email registration to sandy@letac.org. Fill out and submit our online registration form on the website at www.letac.org. Call 217-726-7014 to register by phone (be sure to include all pertinent information). MTU #10 local member officers will be given registration preference until seven days prior to the date of class. After that date, registrations will be taken on a first-come, first-served basis regardless of MTU status. We can no longer accept registrations from individual officers. All registrations must go through your Chief, Sheriff, or department training office, even if you are attending class on your own time. If you have any questions, please contact the office. A map to this and all of our other training sites can be obtained by visiting our website.
